

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5924.14 Delivery to civil authority for trial.

Effective: September 28, 2012

Legislation: House Bill 490 - 129th General Assembly

(A) Under such regulations as may be prescribed under this code, a person on state active duty or duty under Title 32 of the United States Code who is accused of an offense against civil authority may be delivered, upon request, to the civil authority for trial.

(B) When delivery under this section is made to any civil authority of a person undergoing sentence of a court-martial, the delivery, if followed by conviction in a civil tribunal, interrupts the execution of the sentence of the court-martial, and the offender after having answered to the civil authorities for the offender's offense shall, upon the request of competent military authority, be returned to military custody for the completion of the offender's sentence.
